

Neutrality of the Library

Approved Date: October 31, 1982

Revised Date: July 16, 1998

The Harford County Public Library does not support nor will it endorse particular candidates or issues during special, primary, or general elections. The library will remain neutral.

The library will, however, make every effort to provide to the public relevant information about issues and candidates in a balanced and prudent fashion in the judgement of the Director. Campaign materials will not be displayed.

The information regarding the political candidates and campaign issues will be available at each branch for public access.

Political solicitations and/or petitioning of the library patrons on library property is prohibited.
