Norrisville library urges people to read!

by Cindy Seibel

Norrisville branch of Harford County Public Library invites area residents to “Cozy Up with a Good Book.”

The program began December 21 and continues until Wednesday, March 19.

Adults participating should read or listen to at least five books, and high school students should read or listen to at least three books.

Those who complete the program will earn a free 2025 HCPL Winter Reading Mug, available while supplies last.

Other prizes are pens and bookmarks.

People may also join in Winter Reading Bingo, which includes engaging activities and opportunities to support local businesses.

Anyone who completes five Bingo activities in a column, a row or diagonally to get Bingo will receive a special HCPL bookmark and also be entered to win a limited-edition Winter Reading tote bag.

To register for the “Cozy Up” reading program, a person may visit hcplonline.org/winterreading.php. “Cozy Up with a Good Book” can be viewed on the homepage, and a sign-up button is below the photo.

The library organizers are grateful to the Winter Reading Mug sponsors--Aberdeen Proving Ground Federal Credit Union, BGE, Bright View Senior Living, Harford County Public Library Foundation, Bel Air Friends of HCPL and Havre de Grace Friends of HCPL.
