

Romance Author Fest rescheduled

Due to inclement weather, Harford County Public Library has rescheduled its 2nd annual Romance Author Fest to Feb. 26 at the Abingdon Library at 2510 Tollgate Road in Abingdon.

The Romance Authors Fest starts with a "Meet the Romance Authors" event from 4 to 6 p.m. with authors at their respective booths where their books may be purchased and signed, according to HCPL.

The featured authors include Cheryl Barton, Christina Elle, Nonna Henry, J. L. Lora, C.B. Noy, Kara Pleasants, Rebecca Rivard, Mona Shroff, Denise Stout, Jennifer Vido, Kristie Wolf, Diane Wylie and Nancy Yeager. Advanced registration for this part of the festival is not required.

A panel discussion hosted by award-winning local romance author Jennifer Vido and featuring authors Christina Elle, Mona Shroff and Kristie Wolf takes place from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., according to HCPL. This conversation will focus on what it means to be a romance author, where their inspiration comes from, what their writing process is, what is on the horizon for each of the authors and more. Advanced registration is recommended at programs.

"If you enjoy a good romance novel, the Romance Author Fest is for you. These authors look forward to meeting their fans, discussing their books and autographing them," Mary Hatler, CEO of HCPL said in a statement. "For the second year in a row, we are pleased to showcase these amazing Maryland-based authors at this event that celebrates February as the Month of Love."
