

Harford County Public Library February events

Harford County Public Library has an extended list of events occurring throughout February.

On Feb. 21, the Joppa Library will be hosting a “Journaling to Look Back” event where journaling-enthusiast Liz Neal will lead guests through the practice of journaling. The session will explore the past places people have lived and traveled.

Participants should register beforehand at programs.hcplonline.org/event/14672043. The event takes place from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

On Feb. 26, residents will get to meet author Jennifer Vido from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the Abingdon Library. At the event, Vido will discuss her new book, “Simplicity by the Sea,” the third and final book in her Gull Island series.

Guests will enjoy an evening of conversation and conclude with a question-and-answer session, followed by a book signing and photo opportunity. Copies of Vido’s book will be available for purchase.

Also on Feb. 26 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the Norrisville Library, residents can spend an evening with naturalist Frank Marsden and learn the story behind photos as he shares his experience with wildlife photography.

Residents interested in attending should register at programs.hcplonline.org/event/14713977.
