Harford County Public Library welcomes Trio Sirènes for a classical music performance on April 1 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Havre de Grace Library, 120 North Union Avenue in Havre de Grace.

Trio Sirènes is comprised of Marcia McHugh on the flute, Karin Brown on the viola and Jacqueline Pollauf on the harp. They will present a varied program, including works by Taiwanese-American composer Chen-Yu Huang and Latin-American composer Miguel del Aguila.

Throughout the performance they will offer remarks about the pieces and answer questions from the audience. Trio Sirènes thanks the Baltimore Symphony Musicians Foundation for their support of this performance.

“We are so fortunate to have three incredibly talented musicians who are well-known up and down the East Coast join us in Havre de Grace the evening of April 1,” said Mary Hastler, CEO of Harford County Public Library. “Trio Sirènes will provide our Library customers with an innovative program of glorious music that is sure to please, and we invite the community to join us.”

Harford County Public Library operates 11 branches located throughout Harford County offering access to ideas that inform, entertain and inspire. Last year the Library interacted with its residents more than 12 million times – borrowing free materials, visiting branches and the website, using free WiFi, and attending classes and events. In 2024 Harford County Public Library received the Maryland Library Association Excellence in Marketing Award for graphic excellence for the second time. For more information, visit HCPLonline.org.
