Get tickets now for the Jan. 8 address on behalf of the Harford County Public Library Foundation by Anirban Basu, Chairman and CEO of The Sage Policy Group.

Basu will discuss 2026's key economic trends, including interest rates, global and regional shifts, labor and wage dynamics, business confidence, demographic changes and a forecast tailored to local stakeholders.

"We are excited to offer this event to local businesses and community members. Dr. Basu's presentations are usually reserved for boardrooms and major conferences, making this a rare and valuable opportunity, especially in a year when clear economic insight is more important than ever," said Mary Hastler, CEO of Harford County Public Library.

Tickets are $60 per person and include a continental breakfast. Go online to <https://programs.hcplonline.org/event/15088319>. Basu will speak during the Game Changer series to be held at the Abingdon branch library, 2510 Tollgate Road.
