

Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival | PHOTOS

Costumed children march together in a parade to kick off the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

By BRIAN T. KRISTA | bkrista@tribpub.com

PUBLISHED: January 12, 2024 at 3:25 p.m. | UPDATED: January 12, 2024 at 3:28 p.m.

Harford County Public Library Holds 6th Annual Fairy Tale & Superhero Festival Friday at the Abingdon Library, a daylong celebration that featured guest readers, crafts, STEM activities, parade, dance parties, and more.

Costumed children march together in a parade to kick off the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Three-year-old Brooks Edwards of Abingdon plays with rings of ribbon while taking part in a dance party during the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Stacey Pico of Abingdon and her 3-year-old nephew Calvin Sparks listen to a reader during a family story time at the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Abingdon siblings Mabel, 5, and Jack Reed, 2, pose together in their costumes, for a portrait during the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Patrick Vincenti, Harford County Council President reads to children and their families during the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Families take part in a dance party during the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Reign Blumberg, 3, of Bel Air, pets a stuffed unicorn while taking part in activities during the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Bridget Bloomer, Senior Assistant Branch Manager, rides in a wagon while wearing mermaid attire for a parade to kick off the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Carolyn Lambdin, past president of HCPL Foundation Board of Directors, reads Snowmen at Night by Caralyn Buehner during a family story time at the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Dr. Monique Head, HCPL Board of Trustees, reads Oh, the Places You'll Go! by Dr. Seuss, during a family story time at the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Patrick Vincenti, Harford County Council President reads to children and their families during the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)

Bel Air resident Kristin DiMartino and her 2-year-old daughter Riley listen to a reader during a story time at the Harford County Public Library's 6th Annual Fairy Tale and Superhero Festival at the Abingdon Branch on Friday. (Brian Krista/staff photo)