

Harford County Public Library hosts spring events

By Katia Parks

Harford County Public Library is hosting several special guests and presenters during April and May on topics including financial literacy, Black Gospel music, mental health awareness, genealogy, tea and horse racing.

"We are so pleased to provide our customers with programs on a wide variety of topics in April and May," said Mary Hastler, CEO of Harford County Public Library.

This week, HCPL hosted sessions on financial literacy and financial education awareness, and the 11th annual Black Gospel Musical Experience. Upcoming programs will cover history, genealogy, financial literacy, horse racing and more.

"There's truly something for everyone at the library," Hastler said.

The programs are open to the public and free of charge:

■ Tea-ology, an event hosted by The Tea Trolley of Delta, Pennsylvania. The event is April 27 from 6 to 7 p.m., at the Norrisville Library, 5310 Norrisville Road. Registration is required at <https://programs.hcplonline.org/events>.

■ The Big Infinite Concert with Jordan Lally is April 28 from 3 to 4:15 p.m., at Shamrock Park, 39 North Hickory Avenue, Bel Air. The concert will be held outdoors at Shamrock Park, behind the Bel Air Library. In the event of rain, the concert will be moved to the Abingdon Library.

■ Family Gatherings - Dragging Genealogy Information Out of Your Family, will be presented by Melissa Barker is May 9 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. It is a virtual event. To register for the program, go to programs.hcplonline.org/events.
