Material Donations (Books, DVDs, CDs, etc)

I would like to be a supporter of Harford County Public Library by donating the following items:

Subject or titles: _____

Note: The Library welcomes and appreciates donations of items that enrich our branch collections. If donating physical items instead of money to purchase titles for memorials, tributes or honorary gifts, please contact the Materials Management Department at 410-273-5600 x2273 to discuss specific items prior to making the donation to ensure that the donated titles can be accepted. Please note that we normally do not affix bookplates to audiovisual materials because of format considerations. Donated materials will remain in our collections for as long as condition and circulation warrants their retention.

If you have any questions, please call the Foundation Director at 410-273-5600.

Please return this form and your donation to your local library or mail to:
