

Harford County Public Library Hosts Author Hannah McKinnon During National Book Tour

Harford County Public Library hosts Hannah McKinnon during her national book tour at a Meet the Author event to discuss her new book, "The Summer Club," on August 20 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Abingdon Library, 2510 Tollgate Road in Abingdon. McKinnon will be joined in conversation with local author and executive director of the Harford County Bar Foundation, Jennifer Vido.

"A great beach read is always so popular with our customers, especially those written by acclaimed author Hannah McKinnon. She is a customer favorite," said Mary Hastler, CEO of Harford County Public Library. "We are so pleased to welcome Hannah to the Abingdon Library, and it will be a night to remember."

This sharply written, refreshing new novel, perfect for fans of Elin Hilderbrand and Jennifer Weiner, takes place at Mayhaven, an exclusive New England beach club that's long been the best-kept secret in Massachusetts.

"The Summer Club" features Darcy Birch, who is supposed to be experiencing the summer of her life, but a few things stand in her way, like her family and job as a camp counselor. Then there are the new neighbors—Flick Creevy and his family, who park their RV in the Birches' backyard. Pushed to get a job at Mayhaven, Flick's eyes are opened to the ways of the upper crust and the fact that either you're on the inside or the outside.

Following the presentation, there will be Q&A with the author as well as a book signing and photo opportunity. Attendees are encouraged to purchase "The Summer Club" at their favorite bookseller and bring it with them that night for the author to sign. Seating is limited, and advanced registration is recommended at <https://programs.hcplonline.org/event/11236591>. For more information, visit HCPLonline.org.
