

Who Are the Friends?

Established in 1999, Jarrettsville Friends of Harford County Public Library has a common interest in the vitality of its library. The group shares a passion for libraries and a desire to support them with day-to-day activities and future initiatives.

The Jarrettsville Friends advocates and fundraises on behalf of the Jarrettsville Library to enhance programs and services provided to residents of Harford County. This supports the Library's core purpose of connecting people with information and promoting the love of reading within the community.

Jarrettsville Friends in Action

The Jarrettsville Friends has contributed thousands of dollars to support the Jarrettsville Library. Some examples include:

- Conducting used book sales to support Library programs and the purchase of special materials and equipment.
- Funding the Summer Reading Program.
- Supporting and cooperating with the Library in developing services and improving facilities for the community.
- Funding the Winter Reading Program.

Why Be a Friend?

Because...

- You support the Library and appreciate the role it plays in the community.
- Your membership helps fund programs, materials and services.
- You will meet individuals who share your love of reading and your interest in the Library.

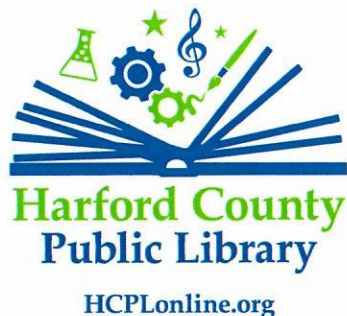

Meetings

Members are encouraged to attend Friends meetings. Please look for notices at the Library or call the library at 410-692-7887 for specific dates and times.

Volunteering

Volunteering is an essential function for all Friends groups and your participation is welcomed. Opportunities include fundraising and other committee work, as well as assisting with Library projects.

To become a Jarrettsville Friend, fill out the membership form and mail it in or drop it off at the Jarrettsville Library. Your membership donation is tax-deductible.
