Chesapeake Farm & Bay to Table Goes
'Down the Ocean, Hon, Beach Food is Calling' on July 13
Explore favorite foods at the beach plus a roasted peach ice cream from Harford County

Belcamp, Md., June 24, 2022 -- "Down the Ocean, Hon, Beach Food is Calling" is the theme of the July 13 episode of "Chesapeake Farm & Bay to Table." This popular virtual cooking series is produced by Harford County Public Library and Chef John Shields' Our Common Table and highlights Maryland farms, fisheries and local businesses. The program will be presented via Zoom from 7 to 8 p.m.

Among the highlights of this episode are breakfast at The Bayside Skillet, a visit to the Ocean City boardwalk for Thrasher's French Fries and Alaska Stand ice cream plus fine dining at Liquid Assets.

Back in the kitchen, Library CEO Mary Hastler and Chef John whip up Gertrude's Eggs Benedict and their version of crispy french fries. Special guest Kate Dallam from Harford County's Broom's Bloom Dairy will make roasted peach ice cream. The program concludes with creating a simple but delicious Bloody Mary cocktail. Recipes for all dishes will be provided to viewers.

"Going to the beach in the summer is a highlight for many families. The foods we enjoy there are always so memorable," said Hastler, the library CEO. "This episode takes viewers to Ocean City to see where many of our favorite beach foods are made. Then we'll show you how to make these delicious foods in your very own kitchen. We are also pleased to have Kate Dallam from Broom's Bloom Dairy join us in the kitchen as she prepares a mouthwatering roasted peach ice cream."
