LIBRARY HACKS THE ONLINE SCAVENGER HUNT WINNER AWARDED

(Belcamp, Maryland – June 18, 2015) Bridget Tramontana, a participant of the Library Hacks contest and winner of the iPad Mini, was awarded her prize at the Havre de Grace Library. Library Hacks, an online information scavenger hunt, is a partnership between Harford County Public Library (hcplonline.org), Harford County Public Schools, (hcps.org) and Harford County Community College (harford.edu).

The contest consisted of following clues and answering questions online with the goal of introducing participants to the vast array of online resources available at all the library systems in Harford County.

The contest was open to middle and high school students. The iPad Mini was awarded in a random drawing from all the correct answer logs that were submitted.
