IOTA NU CHAPTER OF OMEGA PSI PHI FRATERNITY DONATES BOOKS TO LIBRARY

(Belcamp, Maryland – February 9, 2016) In honor of Black History Month, the Iota Nu Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity book dedication was held at the Harford County Public Library Abingdon Branch. Copies of The Bishop Bond: Finding Yourself Through Family Roots by local author, Reggie Bishop, were donated and will be available at all Library locations.

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. is the first African-American national fraternal organization founded at a Historically Black College and University. Omega Psi Phi Fraternity's mission is to provide social action in the communities in which its members live through dedication to its four Cardinal Principles: Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance and Uplift.

Visitors to the Library are encouraged to check out the Iota Nu chapter's newest addition to the collection. Details for additional Black History Month programs can be found on the Library's website at www.hcplonline.org/celebratingblackhistory.

Harford County Public Library operates 11 branches located throughout Harford County, Maryland. The Library serves over 191,000 registered borrowers of all ages and has an annual circulation of over 4.1 million. Harford County Public Library is committed to connecting people with information and promoting the love of reading within the community.
