HANDMADE ITEMS DONATED BY LIBRARY TO LOCAL HOMELESS SHELTER

(Belcamp, Maryland – January 16, 2015) Harford County Public Library collected handmade hats and scarves during the month of December to donate to the local Faith Communities and Civic Agencies United (FCCA) shelters. Over 500 items were donated from Library staff, customers, knitting groups and local crafting groups. Men, women and children were the recipient of the items during the holiday season.

Harford County Public Library operates eleven branches located throughout Harford County, Maryland. The library serves over 191,000 registered borrowers of all ages and has an annual circulation of over 4.1 million. Harford County Public Library is committed to connecting people with information and promoting the love of reading within the community.
